Seek help (or an internship) through American associations based in France

- ◆ American Embassy in Paris (consulates and American posts in France)
- ◆ Foundations: French American Foundation, The American Library in Paris etc.
- ◆ Get in touch with the American companies in France, visit the American Chamber of Commerce in Paris's website (company directory and internship offers available) as well as the European American Chamber of Commerce's website: <http://www.amchamfrance.org/> and <http://www.eaccfrance.eu/>
- ◆ NGOs based in France hire interns on a regular basis.
- ◆ Also, there is a network of Americans abroad that you can easily find on the internet... <http://france.angloinfo.com>, <http://www.parisfranceguide.com>, <http://www.aaro.org>

Unsolicited application (“candidature spontanée”)

Unsolicited applications are very common in France and sometimes turn out to be successful! Each company handles applications in its own way so check their website.

How to write cover letter / resume in French?

French cover letters and resumes are different from American ones, and writing in a foreign language is difficult. Here are some useful websites to help you:

<http://www.cadremploi.fr/edito/actu-et-conseils/boite-a-outils.html>

<http://www.studyrama.com/stages-emploi/emploi/guide/cv.html>

Additionally, we regularly hire interns and temporary employees.

Please check our website (<http://www.consulfrance-boston.org/spip.php?article1524>) for further details and updates.
